CITY OF PARIS.

1882. Fall Season. 1882.

EUGENE MEYER & CO.

Take pleasure in announcing to their many patrons, and the public in general, that their Fall Importations have arrived, and are now ready for inspection.

Mens', Youths' and Boys' Clothing Department.

The distinguishing feature of our really grand display of Ready-made Garments for Mens', Youths' and Boys' Wear, consists in the fact that the material used is of the very best the looms of Foreign and Domestic Manufacturers can bring forth. Linings and Trimmings being first-class, correspond in texture, as well as fabric, with the material of the garment. As to the cut and fit, the garments are indeed an eminent success, and elicit highly flattering criticisms from all sides. Through untiring efforts we have succeeded in securing an assortment of CHILDREN'S SUITS and OVERCOATS which will meet the appreciation of our patrons, being, in all respects, the most complete and most choice assortment displayed by any house on the Pacific Coast.

HAT DEPARTMENT.

In the line of Hats we show all the Latest Styles and most celebrated makes of Soft and Stiff Finished Goods.

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS DEPARTMENT.

In this department we introduce this season a better and finer class of Underwear and Hosiery than ever before offered in this market, while our superior make of White and Fancy Shirts, aided by a mammoth stock to select from, will sustain its enviable reputation as "The Best in the Land." In Neckties, Scarfs and Dress Cravats the selection is brilliant. In Linen Collars and Cuffs we offer none but approved makes of fashionable designs.

Our Grand Show Windows will display a few of the Leading Styles, and it will be worth your while to pause for a moment in front of the "Clothing Window."

DEATH'S WORK.

Death of John D. Defrees, Late Public Printer.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 19.—A dispatch to the News announces the death of John D. Defrees, late Public Printer, at Berkeley Springs, W. Va., this morning.

FRANK QUEEN DEAD.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—Frank Queen, proprietor of the New York Clipper, died this afternoon of paralysis of the brain. He was sixty-three years of age.

OBSEQUIES OF MISS PARNELL.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The train containing the remains of Miss Fanny Parnell was received to-night by a large crowd. The streets in the neighborhood of the depot and along the route of the procession were thronged. A detachment of the 69th regiment formed a guard of honor around the hearse, where a special train was in waiting to convey the remains to Boston.

MACKEY.

New Mexico Cowboys have a Hankering After the Bonanza King.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Sun's Chicago special says: Bonanza Mackey and party from California passed through the city yesterday, accompanied by Col. M. G. Gillette, who joined the party at Lake Valley, New Mexico, for the purpose of escorting them through the cow-boy infected region between Lake Valley and the Santa Fé railroad. The cow-boys have established a system of brigandage to kidnap wealthy men and hold them for ransom. Col. Gillette getting wind of the fact that a reward had been offered for the capture of Mackey by the captain of the cow-boys, volunteered the service of himself and a strong party to escort the bonanza king and his friends to the railroad. Although no effort was made to capture the millionaire, a number of small bands of outlaws were encountered, and Mackey expressed himself satisfied that nothing but the presence of his escort prevented them from holding him up.

DORSEY.

An Explosion from the Star Route Boss.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 18. — Stephen W. Dorsey is in the city to-day. The Journal will to-morrow publish an interview in which Mr. Dorsey is accredited with some violent assertions. He states that the prosecution, as conducted against him by Attorney-General Brewster, was altogether unwarranted and amounted to persecution. He does not hesitate to charge it was the work of conspiracy against him begun by Postmaster-General James and Attorney-General MacVeagh, and completed by Attorney-General Brewster. He is confident of the entire truth of the data regarding the alleged attempt at bribery as prepared by Col. Ingersoll and published on Monday and asserts that Bowen and Fall are and have for some weeks been in close intimacy with Brewster Cameron.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

Failure of Massachusetts Woolen Manufacturers.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—R. V. Stoors & Co., woolen manufacturers at Dedham, Mass., failed yesterday; liabilities, $430,000; nominal assets, $225,000. It is believed that up to within a few days the creditors of the concern have been misled by statements concerning its resources. Some months ago, it is stated, the firm claimed to have large assets over liabilities. Wm. S. Slater is an endorser to a large amount of the concern's paper, and as it was believed he owned large amounts of real estate, his endorsement was generally accepted. Investigation, however, discloses the fact that he does not own a large amount of property, and some recent transfers have been made which have a questionable appearance.

THE JEANNETTE INQUIRY.

WASHINETON, Oct. 19.—In the Jeannette Board of Inquiry Lieutenant Danenhower was recalled and asked the following question: "Do you know anything in the management of the Jeannette which subsequent experience proved prejudicial and which could have been averted?" His reply was, "It is a question of judgment which is called for by the Court, and when I embarked on the expedition it was to abide by the judgment of the commander, and I do not wish to oppose my judgment to that of the commander or others unless it is absolutely required of me." The Court was then cleared for consultation.

A resolution was passed to unitedly oppose the aggression of the Prohibitionists, making it a national issue, and congratulating Ohio on the result of its late election. After the appointment of an executive committee the convention adjourned till to-morrow.

JAY HUBBELL.

BOSTON, Oct. 18.—Jay Hubbell recently visited Boston, but failed to persuade Collector Worthington to permit the assessment of clerks in the custom house. Hubbell informed President Arthur at the hotel, but received no encouragement.

A Noble Gift.

The managers of the Orphans' Home of this city have been notified by J. G. Bailey, M. D., of Santa Ana, that in his official capacity of committeeman from the Santa Ana valley for forwarding fruit exhibits to the Fair, he asked and obtained the permission of nearly all the exhibitors to donate their exhibits of fruits, vegetables, etc., at the close of the Fair, to the Orphan's Home. This is a worthy act and one that should be repeated by other sections of the county exhibiting at the Fair.

MRS. SCOVILLE.

Her Insanity Legally Inquired Into.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 19.—Inquiry into the alleged insanity of Frances M. Scoville, wife of George Scoville, and sister of Chas. J. Guiteau, the murderer of President Garfield, was begun in the County Court to-day, on complaint of her husband, who appeared on behalf of the prosecution. The day was occupied in the selection of a jury and hearing the opening statements of the counsel. Scoville, in his statement, gave a history of the Guiteau family, claiming that a stream of insanity has run through it since 1790, and that, of eleven children of her father, five died of insanity and two of diseases closely allied to it. Mr. Blanch, Mrs. Scoville's attorney, in his statement charged Scoville with inhuman treatment to his wife, and stated he instead should be in a Lunatic Asylum. The hearing will be continued to-morrow.

A SERIES OF EXPLOSIONS.

A Defective Main Causes a Series of Gas Explosions.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—A series of explosions caused a panic in Twentieth street. It was an explosion of gas in a defective main and blew out the iron grating over the sewer at Twentieth and Ogden streets, and blew it a hundred feet into the air, also tearing out the earth and stones around. A minute later a similar explosion followed, one square away at Twentieth and Poplar streets, a third at Twentieth and Parrish streets, and a fourth at Twentieth and Brown streets. The flames then burst from the sewer, throwing a volume of fire into the street. Houses were shaken within a radius of several squares, and created a tremendous excitement. Strange to say no one was hurt.

ANOTHER EXPLOSION.

About half-past 11, while Mrs. Lapham, of 4742 Paul street, Frankford, was cleaning furniture with benzine, a three-gallon can that contained the liquid caught fire and a terrific explosion occurred. The entire front and wall of the building, a three-story brick structure, and the house at No. 4744, was partly demolished. A Mrs. Huff was seriously burned.

The Jeannette Investigation.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Chief Engineer Melville sent his report yesterday to the Secretary of the Navy. It is a graphic narrative of the Jeannette expedition from the time when, after parting, the Danenhower crew separated into three sections. This report therefore supplements the ship's log and De Long's own minutes, all of which were preserved, and thus completes the history of the ill fated expedition. The report is accompanied by a carefully-drawn chart which shows in detail the wanderings of the explorers. The story of the events of July 12th and 13th, attendant upon the loss of the Jeannette was then commenced. While proceeding with his narrative, the Court adjourned.

A. W. Slayback.

THE death of Hon. John D. Defrees, late Public Printer at Washington, took place yesterday at his mountain home in West Virginia. Mr. Defrees was long a well-known character in public life. Many years ago he was a Republican editor in Indiana, and, if we mistake not, was first appointed at the head of the Government Printing Office by President Lincoln in his first administration. He was displaced by President Johnson to make room for Cornelius Wendell of Albany, who in turn was displaced in 1867, when Congress made the office a Congressional one, and Mr. Defrees was restored to the head of it by election by the Senate. He held the office until May, 1869, when he was succeeded by A. M. Clapp, of Buffalo, who in turn was succeeded by Defrees in 1876, by appointment of President Hayes. He held the place till June, 1882, when he was compelled to resign on account of failing health, and was succeeded by S. P. Rounds, of Chicago, the present incumbent. Mr. Defrees saw the printing required by the Government increase fabulously within the period of twenty years, and the National Printing Office grow to be the largest establishment of its kind in the world, employing, sometimes, fourteen or fifteen hundred persons, consuming hundreds of tons of paper annually, and requiring millions of money to run it. The growth of the country is strikingly illustrated by the increase in the quantity of Government literature demanded for its use. In the incipiency of the Texas-Pacific Railroad enterprise, Mr. Defrees was officially connected with the company. He subsequently sustained reverses of fortune, lost his Washington property, and when he lost his office of Public Printer in 1869, would have been seriously embarrassed had he not been saved from financial straits by private means possessed by his wife. They retired to their pleasant suburban retreat at Berkeley Springs, a health resort nestled among the picturesque mountains of West Virginia—the same old "Bath" that Washington and Lord Fairfax used to visit on horseback from Eastern Virginia in the early days, and the place where "Porte Crayon" recently had his home. At the time of his death Mr. Defrees was in the neighborhood of seventy years old. "Peace to his ashes."

THE TIMES has been visited by a secret emissary (whether he is more reliable than the historic "reliable contraband" of war times, we doubt,) with the gastronomical information that at the Pennites picnic there will be on the

BILL OF FARE,
Petroleum Soup,
Boiled Pig Iron a la Kelly,
Coal and Iron Hash,
(Key) Stone Dumplings,
Anthracite Pie,
Devilled Smoke.

Also, that the guests are invited to bring their squaws and papooses, and smoke a pipe apiece, treaty fashion We are inclined to think, however, that this information comes from some Bostonian who, even yet, would like to flog a Quaker or burn some harmless old woman for a witch.

On the third page is printed a carefully prepared article, by a TIMES man, descriptive of the sewer system of Los Angeles. We believe this is the most complete, if not the only thorough, description of that system ever published. It is reeking with information, and will be found interesting and valuable for reference when the question of sewage comes to be considered by the City Sires and citizens.

A SHOCKING story comes from Mazatlan, Mexico. It is said that buzzards feed on the half buried bodies of poor people interred in the cemeteries at that place. It is almost an incredible story, and if true, reflects severely upon the humanity and civilization of the Mexican people.

IN the column of "Finance and Trade," fourth page, will be found some fresh and valuable information. It makes good reading for business men.

GRAPES, WINE, RAISINS, ORANGES.

In the Dublin Daily Express of September 25, 1882, appears a well and clearly-written letter addressed to the editor by Mr. Gervaise Purcell, of San Gabriel, descriptive of Southern California, its soils, climate and advantages for settlers. The letter is full of valuable facts and statistics, and its publication on the other side of the Atlantic cannot fail to be of advantage to Los Angeles county. Indeed, we learn that its author has already received several letters of inquiry as a result of it. We make a few extracts. After giving some results of grain-growing in this region, Mr. Purcell goes on to say:

Our chief mainstays in the agricultural line, however, are our vineyards and orange orchards, both of which industries are growing so rapidly as to astound easy-going people. Our wines and brandies are steadily making a world-wide name for themselves; and many is the glass of so called French claret and Burgundy drunk in England and Ireland that has its origin on the fair plains of Southern California. Mr. Rose, one of our wine makers here, tells me that from his place alone he sold fifty thousand dollars' worth more wine and brandy in the seven months of this year ending July than in the entire twelve months of 1881. The juice of the grape required by this firm for last year was one million gallons, and they could not get nearly all they wanted.

The profit from these vineyards to the producers is very good, but, not being immediate, requires some little capital to wait for returns; but to those who can do so the profit is certain and good. One of my neighbors, General Stoneman, Democratic candidate for Governor of this State, planted 187 acres of vineyard between 1872 and 1879, some each season, and last year he netted $14,600 (£2,920), or between £15 and £16 net profit per acre.

The vine commences to bear in the third year, when it will yield from £5 to £8 per acre, the expense of cultivation, pruning, &c., being £3 per acre. From that on the expense remains nearly the same, whereas the yield will increase up to ten or twelve tons per acre, or £40 at present prices. Of course, these are the best vineyards, and a fair average would be £20 gross and, say, £4 expense. * * *

The orange interests in this belt of country are, in my opinion, going to be more profitable than viticulture; but all soils and situations are not suited to it, whereas almost any soil suits the vine, and it can be grown profitably without irrigation, which the orange emphatically cannot. (I know I differ from some on this point.) * * * * *

But if patience is necessary in the cultivation of the vine, it is much more so in orange growing. The seedling takes ten years to bear, and budded trees—which will be what orchardists will exclusively plant in future—take four years to yield a crop. Still, it has its compensations, being a delightful occupation, healthy, picturesque and engrossing.

Notwithstanding the above-quoted testimony of Mr. Rose, impliedly in favor of the profitableness of wine-making, the fact appears from his own recent writings (quoted by the TIMES yesterday) that his opinion inclines strongly to the production of raisins as being, in the long run, more profitable than the manufacture of wines. For our raisins, he says, and says truly, we have the world for a market: but for our wines a foreign market has to be made. Mr. Rose makes this candid statement in the face of the fact that his industrial life and business destiny are inseparably connected with the growing of wine grapes and the making of wines, and his own interests would therefore seem to imperatively dictate that he should encourage and stimulate the production of that class of grapes in preference to any other.

This is a question of the first importance, and in view of the fact that the character of the grape culture in Los Angeles county is possibly destined to undergo a complete change, too much nor too prompt attention cannot be given to the subject by cultivators, present and prospective.

Good Republican Doctrine.

The following case, recently decided by a U. S. Circuit Court of Ohio, is almost identical with the "railroad contract system" being inaugurated in this State by the railroad companies, and at which the ninth resolution of the Republican platform is aimed:

A man named Hays was mining coal at Salineville, Ohio, for sale in the Cleveland market, and was dependent on the Pennsylvania Railroad for transportation. The regular price for carrying coal between these points was $1.60 per ton, with a rebate of 30 cents to 75 cents per ton to any person shipping 5,000 tons or more in one year. Hays did not furnish 5,000 tons for transportation, paid the regular price of $1.60 per ton and got no rebate. He sued the company for unlawful discrimination, and the jury assessed the damages at $4,585. Defendant appealed to the United States Circuit Court for the Northern District of Ohio and the judgment of the Court below was affirmed.

The True Platform.

The Chicago Sentinel thus lays down a platform for the Democratic party that just about covers the whole ground:

Resolved, That we are Democrats because our grandfathers were Democrats.

Resolved, That we are Democrats because we are not Republicans.

Resolved, That we are in favor of high tariffs down East and free trade out West.

Resolved, That we are soft money men in Greenback sections and hard money men when among the Shylocks.

Resolved, That we can change our politics to suit all men and all occasions on the shortest possible notice.

Resolved, That though we have been kicked and mauled by the Republican party for the last twenty years we are able to HEAL THE MARK and stand the same treatment as long as our breeches hold out.

Resolved, That we are out of office and are bound to get in.

Resolved, That we condemn the stealing of the Republicans—because if there is any stealing to be done we want to do it ourselves.

THE New York Tribune declares that the crocodile is found in the depths of the Florida lagoons, where it is has long been confounded with the alligator. It is called by Indians "the long-nosed alligator," and is identical with the Jamaica crocodile, but different from the South American cayman. It lives in salt water lagoons or at the mouth of creeks emptying into the sea, while the alligator sticks to fresh water. The former makes much better care of their young than the alligators do, and are more dangerous to approach. Their movements on land are very different, also, from those of the alligator.

Old Chief Pocatello, now at the Fort Hall agency, in answer to an inquiry relative to the true Christian character of a former Indian agent at that place, gave, in very terse language, the most accurate description of a hypocrite that was ever given to the public: "Ugh! Too much God and no flour."—Bill Nye.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I have just received a car-load of Phætons, Brewster side-bar and end-spring Top and Open Piano-Box and Corning Buggies and jump-seat Carriages from a celebrated New Haven, Conn., factory, which I will sell, NOT AT COST, but at Eastern Prices, with freight and a very small margin for handling. If you want a first-class Buggy or Phaeton, I can sell you one cheaper than any dealer or agent on the Pacific Coast. This inducement is made on account of pulling down my present shop, and not having room to store my large stock on hand.

I beg to call the attention of liverymen and the trade to this notice. Call and I will convince you of the truth of my statement.

OUR SEWER SYSTEM,

As it is, and How it can be Improved.

Complete Description of all the Sewers in the City—Their Course, Character and Connections—New Sewers Needed.

That part of the city of Los Angeles lying south and west of the river has a general fall to the south and west of from fifteen to twenty feet to the mile, thus affording ample fall for a complete and extensive sewer system. Main street and streets parallel thereto run in a southerly direction 37½ degrees towards the west, almost in a line with the greatest slope of the valley in which the city of Los Angeles is situated. All the sewers have, therefore, a tendency towards that direction. In Main street and streets parallel thereto the sewers run southwesterly. The sewers of the cross streets accommodate themselves to the accidents of the surface in a manner and with a view to connect by the shortest route with the sewers of the streets running parallel with Main street.

OUR SEWER SYSTEM AS IT IS.

The main sewer runs through Los Angeles street, commencing at First street and running southerly to Ogier lane; thence through the Machado, Warner, Kerckhoff, Reyes and Botiller properties, Moran's lane and San Pedro street to Washington street; easterly along Washington to the Briswalter place; thence southerly through and over the same, where the sewage matter is used for the irrigation and fertilization of the soil. This sewer is made of brick, 26 inches wide, 15 inches high in the clear, and is covered with redwood planks. It conveys the sewage in a bold stream, leaving no sediment in its course. It is in good condition as far as the brick-work is concerned; the covering of redwood planks is in a decayed state and will be replaced this week by a new covering of redwood plank dipped in asphaltum.

Tributary to this sewer is the running from Arcadia street to First street. It is constructed of two-inch plank, is eighteen inches square, set diagonally in the ground. This sewer is in first-class condition, and conveys sewage in a rapid stream, without sediment.

MAIN STREET SEWER

runs from Arcadia street to Ogier lane; it is 3677 feet in length, is constructed of brick, oval shaped; the interior height is three feet, width two feet, walls eight inches thick, made with sand and cement mortar. This sewer is in first-class order and conveys sewage matter in a rapid stream, leaving no sediment. This sewer is connected with the main sewer at the crossing of Ogier lane and Los Angeles street by a brick sewer of the same make and dimension, as the main sewer, and runs from Main street to Los Angeles street.

BATH AND MAIN STREETS SEWER.

This runs from the southwest corner of the public school on Bath street to Marchessault street, thence along Main street to Turner street, opposite the Pico House, 835 feet in length. It is made of 2-inch redwood, 10 by 10 inches wide, set diagonally in the ground.

MAIN AND ARCADIA STREETS SEWER

commences at Turner street, runs south to Arcadia street, east along Arcadia street to connect with Los Angeles street sewer. It is made of brick, is two feet wide in the clear, the sides are four bricks high, upon which rests an arch of a regular half circle.

NEW HIGH STREET SEWER

runs from Short street south to Turner street, thence along Turner east to Main street to a connection with the Main and Arcadia street street sewer; it has also a branch from the summit of New High street, 327 feet south of Turner, which runs northerly to Turner street; also a branch commencing at the Kimball Mansion and running southerly to the Temple street sewer. These last mentioned sewers have a great fall, swift current, and are in excellent condition.

BUENA VISTA STREET SEWER

commences at the summit of said street, at Rock street, opposite the Pico House, and runs southerly to Temple street sewer. This sewer is in an excellent condition.

TEMPLE STREET SEWER

commences at the summit of Temple street at Bunker Hill Avenue and runs easterly to connect with the Main street sewer. It is constructed of 8-inch burnt-clay pipe, and is in excellent condition, having a great fall and swift current.

FORT STREET SEWER

commences a few hundred feet north of Temple, runs south along Fort to Franklin; thence along Franklin to a connection with the Spring street sewer; it has also a branch from First street to Fourth.

SPRING STREET SEWER

runs from near Temple street to a connection with First street sewer.

FIRST STREET SEWER

commences at Fort street, runs easterly, connecting with the Main street sewer.

THIRD STREET SEWER

runs from Fort street to a connection with Main street sewer.

FOURTH STREET SEWER

runs from a connection with Fort street sewer to a connection with Main street sewer.

SEVENTH STREET SEWER

commences at Spring street and runs easterly to the extended line of Los Angeles street, where it connects with the main sewer.

ALAMEDA STREET SEWER

commences at Macy street and runs southerly along Alameda street almost to First street—thence diagonally southwest over the properties of John G. Downey, then crosses First street at Vine street, thence over the lands of Reginaldo Del Valle, Wallace Woodworth, and McDougall, crosses San Pedro street, thence across the land of Mrs. Williams, Goyoneche, Danish, Hunter, Arcadia Baker to Ogier lane, where it connects with the main sewer. This sewer from Macy street to Ogier lane is 5939 feet long, 2958 feet of which is of sixteen-inch pipe, 1592 feet of fourteen-inch, and 1389 feet of twelve-inch cement pipe. It has 20 feet fall, and 108 six-inch connections for the accommodation of houses, seventeen eight-inch connections at the crossing of streets, and five manholes. This sewer is in excellent condition, conveys sewage matter in a swift stream, and leaves no sediment.

COMMERCIAL STREET SEWER

runs from Los Angeles street to a connection with the Alameda street sewer.

VINE STREET SEWER

commences at New Turner street, and runs southerly to First street, where it connects with the Alameda street sewer. It is constructed of 8 inch cement pipe, is 673 feet long, has 28 connections, and one manhole.

PROPOSED NEW SEWERS.

One from the Railroad depot down San Fernando and Alameda streets, to connect with the Alameda street sewer. Spring street sewer from Temple to Seventh street. Fifth street sewer from the Normal School to Spring street.

NECESSITIES.

A sewer along First street from Los Angeles street to Vine street. One on Wilmington street from Commercial to First street. One on Upper Main street, from High street to the Plaza; and above all, a continuation of Main street sewer from Ogier Lane down Main street to Washington street, thence west to the city boundary, thence south to the southwest corner of the city, thence to a piece of land where the sewage matter can be utilized for irrigation and fertilization.

A BIRDS-EYE GLANCE

at the topography of the city would reveal the fact that it forms what may be termed a "warped surface," on account of the high elevation from the northwest to the southeast, with a depression on both sides. With this explanation it will be readily observed that the existing sewage system, running southeast and emptying into the Briswalter place, as before stated, is totally inadequate, in view of the fact that the depression in the southwest portion of the city renders a connection with the main sewer, which runs over more elevated ground, an impossibility. The extension of Main street sewer from Ogier Lane to the southwest part of the city, as suggested already, will supply all demands in that section; and the opportunity presented of securing an unlimited supply of irrigating and fertilizing material for sterile lands just outside the city should stimulate some enterprising man to lease a few hundred acres of land similar to the Briswalter tract, and from the sewage sediment emptying into it and the planting of a grove of eucalyptus trees in the fertilized soil, derive a handsome revenue, which would render it an object for him to offer such inducements to the city as would insure the completion of said sewer without delay. According to Mr. George Hansen's opinion, to whom the TIMES is indebted for valuable data and information on the subject of our present sewage system, the existing system, as, outlined, with the suggested extensions will afford every facility required for all time, especially in view of the fact that the two main sewers, one in the southeast and the other in the southwest, can each be extended on the same general plan to the ocean. No cause for alarm exists at present, all sensational reports to the contrary notwithstanding, and the City Council are developing a comprehensive and practical system as fast as the public needs demand it.

Mr. Baxter, manager for J. D. Patterson, of Hueneme, who has some of the finest stock in Southern California donated all his premiums to the Agricultural Society.

An alarm of fire was caused Wednesday evening, about dark, by the upsetting of a lamp by Mr. J. Wickersham's little girl at his residence, Third street, between Spring and Fort. A Chinaman smothered the flaming oil, and headed off the fire company, who were on the spot in quick time.

The hole in the sewer on New Los Angeles street, near First, referred to in the TIMES a few days ago, has not yet been repaired, and the rock which had been placed in there to fill it up temporarily has been removed, the large opening in the sewer emitting an intolerable stench. It should be attended to without delay.

An interesting programme was performed at the Pavilion last night. Madame Marra sang several solos, and she and Prof. Arevalo sang a duet. Professors Arevalo and Arzaga performed a guitar duet. Lottie Gould played an instrumental solo, and there were several other pieces, all of which were well received.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Jno. A. Paxton, of San Francisco, President of the Laguna Farming Company is at the Cosmopolitan.

Col. A. B. Paris, of San Bernardino, is in attendance at the Supreme Court. He registers at the Cosmopolitan.

J. C. Sepulveda, of Palmer & Sepulveda, Sacramento, is in the city on a visit to friends and seeing the Fair.

Rev. J. Marquis and W. W. Parlin have left specimens of fruit in the TIMES office, special mention of which will appear to-morrow.

Jesse Yarnell, after a six weeks' business tour in Ventura and Santa Barbara counties in the interest of the MIRROR and TIMES, returned home yesterday in good health and much pleased with his trip.

Mr. B. W. Crowell, representing the Pacific Rural Press, of San Francisco, and several other papers published by A. T. Dewey & Co., is visiting the fair in the interest of his papers. The Rural is a paper for everybody.

A TIMES reporter enjoyed a ride to the Park yesterday with Mr. Phillips in his two-wheeled "go-cart." Mr. Phillips has represented the San Francisco Chronicle for many years throughout the coast, and is now on his annual visit to the southern country.

The Circus To-night.

Robinson & Westman's Great Eastern Circus will open this evening on the corner of Main and Sixth streets. Mr. J. S. McCue, the manager, who arrived in the city last night, brings the information that they have been playing to crowded houses all along the coast, and in many places they were obliged to turn away large numbers. Their trained horses are said to be the best on the road, and their specialty artist second to none. One of their athletes goes through a flour-barrel stomach first, doubling himself up worse than a jack-knife.

The Octoroon.

The dramatic version of Mayne Reid's Octoroon was well rendered at Turnverein Hall last night by the Mrs. F. M. Bates Dramatic Company. Every part was well acted, and the company deserve praise for the admirable rendition of each part individually. Mrs. Bates surpassed herself in her pathetic representation of the "Octoroon." Dan Lewis, late of Callender's Minstrels, assisted by the colored quartette of the Pico House, gave good satisfaction in the Jubilee plantation scene. The hall was crowded, and the audience went away pleased.

A Handsome Act.

Messrs. McPherson Bros., of Orange, won the silver medal last year awarded by the Horticultural Society for the best display of California raisins, but owing to the lack of funds, the Society was unable to supply the medal. With commendable liberality, Mr. Coleman, of the Semi-Tropic, has purchased a silver medal and had the necessary engraving inscribed upon it, had it handsomely encased in velvet, and presented it to McPherson Bros.

Altogether too Fly.

A stranger was pulled from Bob Eckert's last night as the clock struck twelve. He persisted in showing the audience there assembled some sleight-of-hand tricks and chipping in generally, to a hindrance of the proceedings of the meeting. An officer representing the Sheriff of this county took charge of the numerous gentleman and conducted him to the police office.

POMONA'S LEVEE,

And Other Doings at the Pavilion and the Park.

A Larger Attendance and Greater Interest—Further Entries—The Equestrienne Contest—To-Day's Programme.

If Los Angeles people were "backward about coming forward" at the opening of the Pavilion, they have at last recognized the pointed fact that "It is never too late to mend." A large and appreciative number of ladies and gentlemen honored the "palace of beauty" on the third night of the Fair by their presence. It is fit to mention here that the management of the Pavilion display have worked persistently in the direction of making this branch of the Fair a success; they have earned their reward.

Among the new and attractive exhibits yesterday is a specimen of silk embroidery by Mrs. R. H. Hewitt which elicited much commendation from the ladies.

Miss G. R. Zazueta, by error in the entry-books, was accredited with a pincushion; her entry is a beautiful handkerchief case.

The ornamental glass exhibit of Robt. Renshaw is something unique and worthy of special notice.

Housekeepers particularly noticed, among the many fine displays of family articles, the entry yesterday by Mr. Thomas Strohm, of this city. His exhibit embraced some sixteen items, noted below.

W. Kitzenmacher's display in the Liberal Art Department, not before mentioned, came in for its share of attention last night. Lovers of the fine arts are much gratified by his exhibition.

Adjoining the above, in Valder's display, is a full length crayon drawing of a Los Angeles society young lady, Miss Katisher, which is greatly admired.

A collection of agricultural implements outside the Pavilion challenges criticism and demands examination at the hands of the average granger.

J. W. Potts' exhibit of cotton-plants, some bolls of which are open, is suggestive of the possibilities of the cotton industry in Southern California. Some of these plants are two years old, which fact tells a story of "climate."

Among the baby entries yesterday was that of a child in whose veins, for all that is known to the contrary, may course the blood of some Abassynian Prince. It is of the Cleopatrian complexion and worthy of a premium. One of the assistants of the Pavilion has entered into bonds to furnish a Chinese infant for competitive honors if time be allowed him. The question is asked, how much time does he want?

The display of premiums, to be awarded, tastefully arranged by Mr Pritchard, is a center of attraction for more reasons than one.

Mr. Clines' taxidermist display is deserving as a work of art and triumph of science. A lady remarked that the white animals—freaks of nature—"are too 'cute for anything." She was wrong, however. The white animals are not too 'cute for white animals.

It is impossible to notice in the TIMES all the points of interest centered in the Pavilion. The scores of articles, interesting, beautiful and worthy of mention, which challenge the attention of visitors, and which it is impossible to even allude to, should be seen by our citizens. Do yourself the pleasure, reader, and the managers of the Fair the justice to visit the Pavilion, and show that you have an interest in this home enterprise.

The entries were closed yesterday at noon. Some of the committees have concluded their labors, but as yet made no report. Blue and red ribbons, stretched or wound here or there among the exhibits, tell the story for many. To-morrow the committees, all, are expected to report, when mention of results will be in order.

Following are entries for Thursday:

MACHINERY, ETC.

L. Roeder, Los Angeles, dog-cart.

TEXTILE FABRICS.

Grace Harrington, aged 11, Los Angeles, fancy work-bag.

Mrs. A. N. Desaulds, Los Angeles, hair work.

THE RACES.

The races yesterday were not so interesting as were those of the day previous, but the announcement of the ladies' riding had the effect of bringing out an immense crowd.

The first heat was trotting, in which Rose's Centre, Slaughter's Tempest and Smith's Kate Bender were the contestants.

In the first heat, Centre won, Tempest 2d, Kate Bender distanced.

Centre won the second heat and the race in 3:00.

The next race was for horses that had never trotted for money, for which an extra purse of $200 was offered. E. L. Maybury entered g. m. Mary Jane. L. J. Rose entered br. g. Debonair, and I. Cowper g. g. Draper.

Mary Jane won in three straight heats, Debonair second in each. Time, 2:47, 2:49, 2:45.

Next was the ladies' long distance riding for a purse of $275, fifteen miles to be covered. There were two contestants, Mrs. Blackford, of the Centinela Rancho, and Miss Addie McCoy, of Los Angeles, and the race afforded much diversion to the immense crowd that thronged the amphitheatre and area in front of the judges' stand. After considerable delay the riders got off at a short canter and had a pleasant tete-a-tete all round the track, keeping together and making such astonishing time that perhaps it would be better not to mention it—the mile was made inside of ten minutes, however. After the second mile the race was more spirited, and two or three very lively spurts were indulged in, and the chances of winning were remarkably even. It was evident that Miss McCoy had the better horses, though Mrs. Blackford was the better rider and had better attendants. It was excruciating at times to see the manner in which the former lady was handled. She is a very stout, buxom lady, and in the sudden stoppages of the horses was badly shaken up, and very frequently she was obliged to jump from her seat to the ground unattended. In mounting the lady was obliged to use so much exertion to gain the saddle that it was necessarily very exhausting, and altogether it was soon evident that she could scarcely hope to finish the race. She had kept ahead however, and it was not until the ninth round that her competitor gained the lead, which she kept to the close. At the end of the eleventh mile Miss McCoy summoned up all her remaining energy and stopped her horse a little before reaching the judges' stand, and as her attendant reached her, fell fainting in his arms. She was carried to the hotel and every possible attention paid her. Mrs. Blackford continued the race at an easy gait and completed the fifteen miles.

Pasadena Gossip.

Correspondence of the TIMES.]

PASADENA, Oct. 19.—The new store is booming along as rapidly as possible.

The M. E. Church people have decided upon a lot on Colorado street—part of the Meharry piece. The selection is a good one, though all cannot be satisfied. The lot (one-half acre) will be devoted to a parsonage only.

Ben E. Ward has sold one acre of the Mills property on Colorado street, 175 feet south of Fair Oaks Avenue, to Dr. F. C. Sheldon, who will commence the erection of a neat and commodious drug store and doctor's office.

The serious illness of Captain Robinson is a source of regret to his numerous friends. He was taken Wednesday with a very severe hemorrhage, but at last accounts was feeling better.

Mrs. J. C. Carr has returned from her northern trip.

J. B. Clapp is in Los Angeles during the week, in charge of the Pasadena exhibit.

The hotel of Mr. Glover will be ready for business about the middle of November.

The new house of Mr. Weingarth, to cost about $2000, is fast nearing completion.

The face of genial Charlie Watts is once more welcomed at the cross-roads.

ORANGE RAISIN CROP.

Rapid Development of an Important Industry—The Work of two Years.

Mr. R. McPherson, of the firm of McPherson Bros., Orange, the well-known raisin producers, made the TIMES office a pleasant call Tuesday. They employ thirty-eight hands in the work of curing their raisins, and expect to have the work completed in two weeks. They estimate the total raisin product of that section will reach at least 20,000 boxes this year, an increase of 5000 boxes over last year. Messrs. Lusk & Co. and Mead & Co., of San Francisco, have secured the total product of that valley this year. From a mere experiment two years ago, when the total product of the valley aggregated only one car-load of 670 boxes, the yield has leaped to 20,000 boxes. This is the best commentary possible on the wonderful resources of the soil and its adaptability to the growth of the raisin grape. To the enterprise of McPherson Bros., in a great measure, is due the growth and fostering care of Orange's raisin product. They have perfected arrangements whereby they will be shortly in daily receipt of weather reports from San Francisco, Santa Barbara, Los Angeles and San Diego through the Signal Service Department—a very important acquisition to them in view of the fact that all their raisins are made by the sun-dried process.

American Colony Notes.

The American Colony street railroad has been completed from the Southern Pacific Railroad to the crossing of the San Gabriel river. The road-bed is graded almost to Willmore City, and the entire length of the road will, it is claimed, be in running order early next week, insuring everything complete in time for the auction sale excursion on the 31st inst. Four cars will be in readiness for the transportation of passengers on that occasion. Harper, Reynolds & Co., who have the contract for furnishing water pipe for the tract, have now 2500 feet completed, and the work of laying pipe will commence next week.
